

Welcome!

Brainband Technology Services provides information technology consulting, web application development, multi-media production services, web hosting and wireless internet connectivity.

Specializing in online course development, Brainband builds learning management systems and comprehensive training courseware used in over 600 colleges across the world. We provide an entire functioning package including counseling on authoring tools and hosting servers for course delivery.

Recent Events

Please install Flash® and turn on Javascript.

//

Course Demos (click to launch)

-